

LO: recognise that light appears to travel in straight lines use the idea that light travels in straight lines to explain that objects are seen because they give out or reflect light into the eye explain that we see things because light travels from light sources to our eyes or from light sources to objects and then to our eyes

How do we see things?

We see objects when light bounces off them and into our eye.

Draw arrows below to show how this works.

